April is Month of the Military Child. During the month, let’s honor military members and the many sacrifices they make every day in support of their military loved ones. Check with your installation to see how it’s celebrating our military children -- young and old.